Annie Eissler is co-founder and VP of Client Services at Mixtur Interactive, a full service marketing agency located on Bainbridge Island that serves technology companies and start-ups with planning, creative and execution services that drive growth. Annie has extensive experience designing and executing market penetration, revenue generation, branding and PR strategies for technology products, services and companies in the U.S., Canada, and Europe. Over the past twenty years, she has led marketing operations for Internet, telecommunications, software, Web-based services, and IT firms ranging from publicly traded companies to venture-backed start-ups. She has served as VP of marketing at such companies as PSINet (Global ISP), Synchris (provider of the Privia bid and proposal solution), COMTek (government contractor based in Chantilly, VA), and ARC (financial clearinghouse for the travel industry). Annie lived and worked in Washington, D.C. for twenty years before moving to Kitsap County in 2005.
